CHICAGO:

CHAPMAN BROS.

and his brother John were engaged in the mercantile business for about five years in Lancaster County, at the end of which time he sold out his interest to his brother, and removed to South Hermitage, where he conducted a store for two years, but returned to East Earl in 1863, and bought out his brother. The marriage of our subject occurred October 16, 1862, to Miss R. V. Wilson, a daughter of John D. Wilson, of Lancaster County. The children that have blessed this union are as follows: Josephine R., now the wife of Walter B. Buck, of Kansas City; Mary Henderson, the wife of E. W. Dowden, of Kansas City; Rachel W., Lydia M., John P. and Sarah D. The older members of the family were all Whigs, but subsequently became Republicans, our subject being one of the staunchest supporters of the party in the family. He is a valued member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, in which he takes a great deal of interest. Mr. Wallace has eighty acres of excellent farm land, which he has under a fine state of cultivation, and upon this he has a neat, comfortable home, in which he and his family reside.

FREDERICK PRICE. The record of the life of this former prominent citizen of Blackburn, who is now deceased, will be of interest to the people of Missouri among whom he lived and labored for many years. Before presenting, however, the events of his life in detail, it may be well to mention briefly some facts with reference to his ancestry.

The Price family originated in Wales, and the grandfather of our subject, James Price, settled in Augusta County, Va., about the year 1750. He married Miss Martha Hutchins, of South Carolina, and of their union were born two children, Frederick and Risdon Hutchins. Grandfather Price was a merchant and ship-owner and was a man of influence in the Old Dominion, where the closing years of his life were passed. He suffered loss by French privateers, and a claim has since been presented by the heirs before the authorities on the French spoliation claims, but nothing resulted, on account of loss by fire of some necessary papers.

Risdon Hutchins Price, father of our subject, was born in Virginia in June, 1780, and came to St. Louis in 1804 from New Orleans, rowing up the river the entire distance accompanied by his slaves. Upon locating in St. Louis he engaged in the general mercantile business and also carried on an extensive trade in furs. He was interested in the Potosi Lead Mines, and in public and private affairs was alike irreproachable and influential. In the year 1808 he assisted in founding the St. Louis Republic, which still lives, a monument to the perseverance and energy of its founders. When the famous Marquis de La Fayette revisited America, Mr. Price was one of the committee appointed by the mayor of the city to welcome him to St. Louis.

In August, 1815, Mr. Price married Miss Mary G., daughter of Gen. Daniel Bissell, of the United States army, and at that time Commander of the Department of the West, with headquarters at Bellefontaine, above St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Price became the parents of the following-named children: James, Frederick, Risdon, Anna, Martha, and Eliza. James went to California in 1849 and still resides in that State; Frederick, Risdon and Martha are deceased. Anna, widow of J. O. Price, lives in Baltimore, as does her sister Eliza. Risdon Hutchins Price died in St. Louis, in December, 1845; his wife had passed away in January of the same year.

The late Frederick Price was born in St. Louis in August, 1818. He received his education in his native city and at Staunton, Va., where he had been sent to live with an aunt and attend school. After reaching mature years he engaged in mercantile pursuits for a few years at Staunton, Va., after which he returned to St. Louis, in 1844, and engaged in farming near that city. November 1, 1852, he married Miss Virginia, daughter of Dr. T. J. Minor, of St. Louis. In 1882 he removed to the place where his family now resides and where he died November 3 of the same year.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. Price included five sons and three daughters, as follows: Risdon

Hutchins, of Blackburn; Thomas Edwin, a resident of St. Louis; James Bissell, who makes his home in Wichita, Kan.; Jefferson Davis and Burtis, who are at home; Mary, wife of J. H. Ashurst, of Marshall, Mo.; Carrie, who married Amaziah Loper, of Saline County; and Corinne, who is at home.

Politically, Mr. Price was staunch in his adherence to the principles of the Democratic party. He was an adherent of the Episcopal Church and a generous contributor to all religious causes. In his manner he was quiet and unassuming, ever genial, courteous and hospitable. His friends were many and his kindly nature invariably made of an acquaintance a personal admirer. It was his custom to help young men who were just starting in life, for he considered that was the period when they most needed assistance. He was buried at the Bellefontaine Church, in St. Louis County, beside his three children who died in infancy.

The old Price homestead in St. Louis included an orchard which occupied the land on the corner of Third and Olive Streets, where stands the old post-office building. An interesting heirloom now in the possession of Mrs. Price is an old Bible bearing the date 1759, which has been in the Price family since its publication. It is a quaint volume, bound in leather, printed in the old style of type and of unusual size, measuring 16x10 inches.

The Minor family came from Fairfax County, Va., to St. Louis at an early day. Dr. T. J. Minor was the youngest of eleven children, ten sons and one daughter. He received his education in a military academy and among his classmates was his cousin, afterward famous as Gen. Robert E. Lee. Dr. Minor was first a lawyer and afterward a physician, which profession he practiced in St. Louis during most of his active life and until his death in 1850.

Mrs. Virginia E. Price was born in St. Louis and was educated at the Convent of the Sacred Heart at Florissant, Mo. She was left motherless at her birth, and has only one own sister, Mildred, now the widow of A. Putnam, a grandson of Gen. Putnam of Revolutionary fame. Mrs. Price owns three hundred and thirty-six acres on sections 4 and 5, township 50, range 23, and with her are two sons, J. D. and Burtis, each of whom has recently purchased land adjoining the home farm, their property amounting to about three hundred and sixty acres. They are engaged in general farming and stock-raising, in which they have met with success. The home of the family is in a large and substantial residence, set in the midst of a fine grove of trees, and pleasantly located. The sons are loyal in their adherence to the Democratic party and are men of influence in their several communities. The eldest son, Risdon Hutchins, is a graduate of Washington Lee University at Lexington, Va., where he graduated at the age of nineteen years with the highest honors of his class. In her religion, Mrs. Price is an earnest member of the Methodist Church, and a lady of noble character, whose sincerity of religious belief is proved by the beauty of her life.

GEORGE W. OSBORN. The gratification that comes of success honestly earned cannot fail to be more pleasing than the fortune itself, especially when the subject of it has the hearty good-will of his neighbors. Such is the case with George W. Osborn, a farmer living on section 19, township 49, range 28, La Fayette County, Mo., son of Cyrus and Sarah (Walker) Osborn, residents of this township. His parents have four children living, namely: our subject, Eliza Wooldridge, P. Walker and Lula.

Our subject was born January 2, 1847, in Lexington Township, grew up on his father's ranch, and attended the public schools of the township. He remained at the old home until he was thirty-two years of age, but worked for himself after attaining his majority. November 28, 1878, he married Miss Rosie, a daughter of Charles McRay, an early settler of the county, who now lives in Nevada, Mo.; her mother is deceased. Mrs. Osborn, one of five children living, was born in Welling-

JOHN OWINGS PRICE was born on January 24, 1812, the only child of the marriage of Frederick and Penelope Owings Price. He was baptised at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Baltimore on March 18, 1812.<sup>1</sup> At an early age, his father died and on July 9, 1818, his mother married Edward Dorsey Goodwin.<sup>2</sup> It was said by his daughter, Emmeline Price Mc Shane, that John Owings Price was then raised by his mother's sister, Charcilla Cockey Deye Owings. This is supported by the last will and testament of Charcilla Owings, dated March 12, 1852, in which she leaves all her "Real Estate lands and tenements and also all (my) personal property and effects unto my nephew John O. Price during his lifetime, and at his death for his children, Charcilla to have the largest share."<sup>3</sup>

John Owings Price married his first cousin, Ann Bissell Price of St. Louis, Missouri.<sup>4</sup> Her father and his had been brothers. They had nine children; Charcilla or Chessy, born November 23, 1848; Frederick Risdon, April 17, 1851, Charlotte Owings, October 17, 1852, Mary Bissell, July 12, 1855; Penelope', Martha Hutchins (Webster), March 23, 1859, and Emmeline Handy Price (Mc Shane), January 18, 1861.<sup>5</sup>

The Sherwood Church record book 1876 to 1891,<sup>6</sup> lists under Families 1885, that of J. O. Price and Ann Price, and Colegate, Charlotte, Frederick, Mary, Martha, and Emma (Emmeline), the living children. In 1897, under the INDIVIDUALS is listed Mrs. Ann Price, Miss Lottie (Charlotte) and Miss Mary Price, the members of the family still alive and residing in Cockeysville.

This book also records the confirmation of Miss Emma (Emmeline) Price by Bishop Prickney, on Sunday night, July 27, 1879, the marriage on December 11, 1885 of Martha Hutchins Price to another parishioner, Lee Thornburgh Webster, and on August 4, 1879, the burial of John Owings Price.

During their married life the Prices lived in their home, "Hocotia", on the York Road between Texas Lane and the Warren Road. Included on the property besides the house on the knoll, were three limestone kilns, a sandbank and lime-stone quarries, an overseers house, a springhouse and pond and a farmhouse across the road. The surrounding land included 400 to 500 acres.

On Christmas Eve, 1910, "Hocotia" burned. The house had been wired for electricity and it was to be turned on Christmas Day. A guest at the residence at the time was a Mr. Love of "Loveton", who was in declining health from tuberculosis. One of his daughters went upstairs to see him and placed a kerosene lamp on the windowsill. A breeze blew the curtain and the lighted lamp set the curtain on fire. Some of the furniture on the first floor was saved, but little else. The property has now been developed into a multiple apartment complex.

John Owings Price was a gentleman farmer and limeburner. He died at the age of 65 from cancer of the lip. He had been an ardent smoker of a Mersham pipe that had had a cracked stem. John O. Price is buried in the Sherwood Church cemetery in the Price Lot.

Her father was born in Virginia in June 1780 and "came to St. Louis in 1804 from New Orleans, rowing up the river the entire distance accompanied by his slaves....."<sup>2</sup>

Her father had one brother, Frederick, who married Penelope Deye Owings of Baltimore. These boys were the sons of James Price who was born in Wales and settled in Augusta County, Va., about the year 1750. He married Miss Martha Hutchins of South Carolina and became a merchant and ship owner...<sup>3</sup>

Ann Bissell Price's parents both died in St. Louis, her mother in January 1845, and her father in December of the same year. Their bodies were removed from the Bissell farm to Bellefontaine in 1890. The Clarkes, von Schraders, Kaysers and Browns of St. Louis were her cousins.<sup>4</sup>

8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. 9 Now God made Daniel to find kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs.

MARY BISSELL PRICE

Mary Bissell Price was the sixth child of John Owings Price and Ann Bissell Price. She was born July 12, 1855 and died November 23, 1923.

Mary Bissell Price never married. After Hocotia burned, she moved across the street to the farmhouse. She ran the farm and was operator of the Mary Bissell Price Limestone Company. She normally employed 5 men in the quarry, 2 burners in the kiln and 1 to 2 men on the farm. She did all the supervising herself. As proprietress of the homestead, she was hostess to the nieces and nephews who would come to spend the summer with her.

Aunt Mary originally owned 150 acres, then bought the Lee property which gave her another 100. Eventually she had 350 acres. When she died, Emmeline bought it but lost it in the Depression on foreclosure.

A large woman, Aunt Mary succumbed from insulin shock. Insulin was just beginning to be used in the treatment of diabetes.

A well respected woman, Aunt Mary was laid to rest in the Sherwood Church cemetery, Cockeysville, Maryland.

The death of Miss Charlotte (Lottie) Price of Cockeysville, marks the passing of one of the members of the once noted and prominent family of Baltimore county distinguished for their accomplishments and hospitality. Her old homestead was once an open house for their many friends. Miss Lottie, as she was familiarly and affectionately known, seemed never happy unless driving her handsome horse to help some poor but worthy neighbor, was dearly loved by the young and old for her unceasing and untiring efforts to aid in every and any way, far or near, any one who might need her kind and generous ministrations.

Miss Price was the granddaughter of the late Frederick Price of Virginia and Penelope Deye Owings Price of Maryland, and the daughter of the late John Owings Price of Baltimore county and Ann Bissell Price of Missouri. Being descended from such well known old and aristocratic families as the Colgates, Deyes and Owings of Maryland, and the Rishdons of New York and was a granddaughter of the late General Bissell of Missouri.

Miss Price is survived by three sisters, Miss Colgate Price of Tarrytown, N. Y., Mrs. Lee Webster of Cockeysville, and Mrs. Emmeline Price McShane of Bethlehem, Pa.

Sixth. To Sarah E. Kennedy, I give, devise and bequeath the sum of Two hundred dollars.

Fourth. In the event that my estate should not be sufficient to pay all of the above bequests, in full, I direct that such deficiency shall be deducted from each, in proportion to the devise.

Aunt Colie writes to sister,
Emmeline Handy Price McShane
about death of their sister, Lottie

Sunday Night Mar. 30. 24

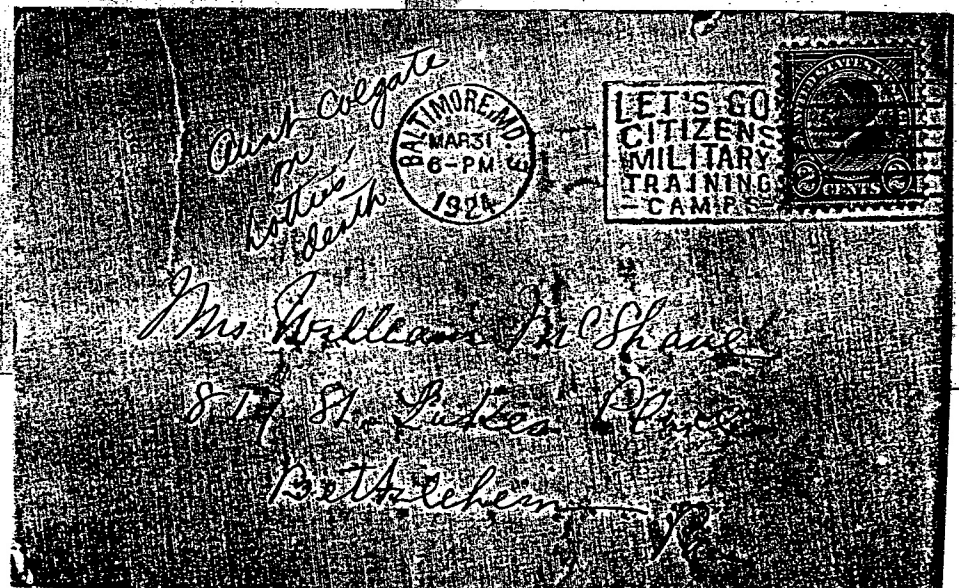

Dear Emmeline, Just three weeks
tonight since poor Lottie's sufferings ended & the full realization of what they were grows on me day by day - & night by night - for <sup>now</sup> when I cannot sleep, I find it hard to do so in the small hours - By force of habit I awake as if I were called - & spend hours in unhappy remembrance of all she went through - I have foolishly mislaid, each day, ~~your~~ your letter but have been feeling physically, as well as mentally, so much distressed & nervous that it seemed impossible to do it - Tonight I will try lead pencil, pen & ink are beyond my efforts - I am very sorry that you too are not getting better instead of worse than when down here & hope things generally will soon be brighter for you. At least you have the peace & quiet of your home and the boys bring some cheer respite it - of course, you are lonesome when they are at work & not being well are depressed.

Have you done any thing about the dentist work? I have not been able even to go again to Dr.
Masterson, & I dread what is ahead of me when I do. I know I am in no condition of health to stand it now - I go with you tomorrow with Norton, to get the special coat prescribed - I have been notified that they are finished - hope they will give me the promised relief - for I have been suffering more & more with my back since you left - Nothing in particular has been happening here since then - Dr. Emerson has taken possession of farm etc. & seems to be conducting things very efficiently & quietly - For an amateur indeed for us he has rented the place

Lowell & Williams in June made no further payments - but promise(?) to do so on the 10th of April. It is reported they are hard up in every direction. I was shown the paper her will a week after L's death, I read & returned it & have not discussed the subject since - or in fact, anything else. Have you not been sent a copy? Was it not the duty of Mr. Offutt to send you one?
I hope all present & future beneficiaries may enjoy their remembrances. I was incidentally placed among the latter as an act of courtesy only. I received a nice little note from Nellie Bayard
It was very sweet for her to write it.
Vera also has written to the "girls" as she calls us all + Bettie Warfield also has written they send her love to you - when is Billie coming along? Why don't you come with him? This time the trip may do you good. I'm sorry it would not be possible for me to return with him just now. So many things to prevent I am sure the change would benefit me if I could

We have heard nothing from Colegate in any form. hope he will be getting on all right. It is near midnight and I must prepare for bed where Mattie has already gone. Nelson has been almost continuously in state of intoxication. Is supposed to leave tomorrow & seek employment elsewhere. Joy & cheer up about the things in life that cause us hurt & unhappiness are not the wrong way & besides it is all from over love to the boys & yourself Affectionately

Under and by virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, in Equity, dated on the 27th day of June, 1927, passed in a cause therein pending, in which Colgate O. Price is Complainant and Martha P. Webster Et Al. are Defendants, the undersigned, Trustees, will sell at Public Sale, on the premises, at the corner of the York Road and Warren Road, in the 8th Election District of Baltimore County, near Cockeysville,

On Tuesday, May 1st, 1928,

Commencing at 2 o'clock P. M.,

All those tracts of land, described as follows:

First—All that tract of land, fronting 1800 feet on the east side of the York State Road, and 1850 feet on the Warren Road, and containing 76 acres of land, more or less. This lot of ground is well suited for either development or for a splendid country home, has a beautiful grove of large oak and other trees, with a splendid stream of water running through the property. It has on it a fine lime-stone quarry and is improved by a stone house.

Second—All that lot or parcel of land fronting 2000 feet on the York State Road and 1848 feet on the Northern Central Railroad, and containing 56 acres of land, more or less. This lot of ground would make a splendid country home, about the proper acreage and has on it deposits of pure white sand, almost unlimited in quantity, of the finest quality, suitable for both agricultural and industrial purposes, several lime kilns and a switch from the Northern Central Railroad. It has a splendid stream of water running through the property, and is improved by a six-room dwelling, a large barn, corn house, wagon shed and other buildings.

Third—All that lot of ground adjoining Lot No. 2, having a frontage of 2100 feet on the York State Road and 1228 feet on the Northern Central Railroad, containing 76 6-10 acres of land, more or less. This lot of ground is the highest point between Cockeysville and Towson, and would, because of its location, be a most desirable property for development, overlooking the surrounding country for miles.

Fourth—All that lot of ground fronting 786 feet on the Northern Central Railroad, containing 10 1/2 acres of land, more or less. This lot of ground contains a sand bank, which has been operated profitably for many years, yielding the finest pure white sand, of practically unlimited amount. The sand is especially valuable both for agricultural and industrial purposes. In the right hands, this property could be made into a most valuable business. This lot is improved by a sand crushing and excavating plant.

Fifth—All that lot of ground fronting 445 feet on the York Road and 892 feet on the County Road, known as Texas Lane, and 1383 feet on an avenue 30 feet wide, containing 8 4-10 acres of land, more or less. This lot of ground is especially adapted for immediate development and by reason of that fact will be offered in lots as laid down on a plat which will be exhibited on day of sale; also as appears on sign boards to be placed on the property. It will first be offered in lots and then as a whole, and sold in the manner that produces the highest bid. It is improved by a large stone dwelling, garage and large stone barn.

A full description by metes and bounds to all the above lots can be secured from the Trustees or Auctioneer, and will be read on the day of sale.

These lots of ground will first be offered separately, the bids reserved and then offered as an entirety, and will be sold in the manner which produces the highest price, if satisfactory to the Trustees.

This property, all adjoining, because of its location, large road front, more than two miles, and natural resources, will make a splendid investment and well worth the attention of persons looking to future profits.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third cash; balance in 6 and 12 months, or all cash, as the purchaser may elect at the time of sale. Settlement to be made in ten days after final ratification. Credit payments to bear interest at six per cent. from date of sale. Credit payments to be secured to the satisfaction of the undersigned Trustees. All expenses, including taxes, to be adjusted to the date of sale.

A cash deposit of ten per cent. of the purchase price of each of lots above enumerated, 1, 2, 3, 4, if sold separately, and of $5,000.00 if sold as an entirety will be required of the purchaser at time of sale.

A cash deposit of twenty-five per cent will be required of the purchaser of lots laid down on plat of the 5th tract, if sold separately and $1,000.00 if sold as an entirety, at time of sale.

Large sign boards showing the outlines of the various lots can be seen on the premises.

SHERWOOD CHURCH RECORDS 1876 to 1891

History of Sherwood Parish, commencing February, 1876

The Rev. A. Y. Pindell of St. John's Parish, Baltimore and Hartford Co. was unanimously elected to succeed the Rev. Mr. Wiley entering upon the discharge of his duties February, 1876.

The Register kept of former Rector's has been lost. The past history of the parish, especially its early days, cannot be accurately found out.

Mrs. Frances T. D. Taylor built the leh in about the year 1830 and gave it together with 5 acres of land into the charge of Drs. Henshaw and Johns of Baltimore as trustees for the use of the Episcopal church.

The first Vestry was elected Easter Monday April 1835 as follows:

Nicholas M. Bosley
John D. Readle
John Henry Price
Samuel Worthington
Christopher C. Love
Amon Bosley
Nicholas R. Merryman
Joshua F. Cockey

It seems that Rev. John T. Robinson was their Rector. At a meeting of the vestry May 27th 1838, Rev. Ira A. Easter was elected to the Rectorship. Died Jan 16th in his 46th year. March 11th 1840 - Rev. Mr. Pleasants was elected Rector. No record of his acceptance! About this time Rev. Mr. Worthington as Pastor and the rectory was built. April, 1847 Rev. Wm. N. Pendleton was Rector. By the will of the late N. M. Bosley an annuity of $120 in ground rents was given to the parish. Dec. 28 to 1848 Rev. James Mc Kenney was chosen Rector. Resigned Sept. 1849- June 11, 1850 the Rev. Nicholson was elected Rector. 1850 Sept. 9th Rev. Cyrus Waters was elected.

The convention May 1859, granted metes and bounds as follows:

"Beginning on the Falls Road, at the Ridge Meeting House now the South Eastern boundary of the Parish of the Western Rein, thence running on the line of said road, northwardly to Shawan from thence in a straight line to the North East corner of Dr. Louis Griffiths farms, now, the North Eastern boundary of the Parish of the Western Run, thence in a straight line to the Friends Meeting House, from thence with the County Road northwardly to Pine Run, from thence with the County Road eastwardly to the York turnpike road between the seventeenth millstone, thence southwardly with the York turnpike to the point when the County Road intersects it, leading from Sparks Switch, thence Eastwardly by said road, until it reaches the Northern Central R. R. at Sparks Switch, thence southwardly by said R. R. to a point where the County Road crosses it at Phoenix Factory, thence south-eastwardly by said County Road to the County Road leading from the York Turnpike, to the old York Road, to its junction with the Potspring road from thence westwardly to the Falls Road at John Cockey's Tavern and Thence northwardly with the Falls Road to the place of beginning."

Rev. Mr. Waters resigned Nov. 1st 1860.

Rev. H. H. Hewith was chosen in his place, but did not accept Dec. 31st 1860, Rev. Dr. I F. Hoff was elected, resigned Nov. 1, 1871.

November 17th 1871 Rev. John Wiley was elected Rector, resigned Jan. 1st 1876.

Sittings in church made free Jan. 1st 1877.

Mrs. Colgate Pascal Has Perfect Attendance At Timonium Fairs

BY SNOWDEN CARTER
Mrs. Colgate Cherbonnier Pascal is understandably one of Timonium's most ardent enthusiasts. She was born and reared on the estate which once included in its sprawling acreage the entire Timonium Fair Grounds.

Mrs. Pascal claims never to have missed a Timonium Fair during her lifetime, and she's probably correct. Her mother, Mrs. Caleb Dorsey Cherbonnier, had only to carry her youngest of five children across the side lawn to enter the Timonium Fair Grounds.

A great rider in her youth, Mrs. Pascal once established a woman's high jump record of 6 feet 10 inches.

She was born to one of Baltimore county's best known families, and the homestead still stands, occupied now by Mrs. Pascal's nephew, Caleb C. Ewing.

The estate was once so large that it embraced all the acreage from Timonium to Lutherville. Now the Ewings have only three acres, and that plot of ground is surrounded on three sides by the race track parking lot.

Daring Horsewoman

Colgate Cherbonnier Pascal (her older brother and sisters were named Marie Louise, Lucie, Louis and Katharine) was a daring and adventurous horsewoman, as was her only surviving sister, Mrs. Katherine Ewing.

"Katherine and I were expelled from school," recalls the small, energetic Mrs. Pascal with a chuckle. "See, we had to ride horseback to get to school in Towson. And back then the only way girls rode was side saddle.

"But we did so much riding at home sitting astride our horses that we felt side saddle was a nuisance. So we had our mother make skirts which buttoned down the front. When we were going to ride astride we unbuttoned the dresses. When we got to school we buttoned them again before anybody saw us.

"Word got around the school, though. One day the principal called us in and told us what she had heard. We told her it was true. We were riding our horses astride. She told us that was something no lady would do, and she told us to leave the school."

Wear Riding Breeches

After their expulsion the Cherbonnier girls grew even more daring in their attempt to gain equestrian independence. They donned riding breeches next—an absolutely unheard of venture with ladies' wearing apparel.

"It was like being the first girl to wear a bikini bathing suit," recalls Mrs. Pascal.

Colgate Cherbonnier remained an active horse show performer until she married Edward Louis Pascal. Her career ended with the subsequent birth of three sons, E. Louis, Jr., Colgate and Caleb, the oldest and youngest of whom are now professional horse trainers.

Only once was Mrs. Pascal hospitalized by an injury caused by a horse. This was eleven years ago in the Marlboro Race Track paddock where she was struck by a horse and received a fractured

FIFTY YEARS AGO—Colgate Cherbonnier, a native of Timonium and a daring horsewoman in her youth, is shown here clearing a timber jump of 6 feet 10 inches.

hip. "It mended quickly," adds the little lady with quiet pride.

Helps At Stables

Although Mrs. Pascal has lived in Monkton most of her adult life, she comes close to being a daily Timonium visitor throughout the year. Her two horse-training sons have horses at the track during most of the year and she is their most willing and able assistant.

She no longer rides, but with horses she is in constant contact.

Mrs. Pascal, a widow, is today as handy with a pitchfork as she was in the saddle during her youth. She likes even the most menial task of cleaning out a horse stall, asserting that the exercise would be "good for anybody."

Caleb Dorsey Cherbonnier, Mrs. Pascal's father, was the great-nephew of Mrs. Cassandra Deye Owings Van Pradelles, whose execution by sea pirates inspired the name of Timonium for the present home owned by Mrs. Pascal's nephew.

"Timonium" was the Egyptian tower to which Mark Antony retired after his defeat at Actium. He was friendless and in despair. The sorrow occasioned by Mrs. Van Pradelles's execution at sea was likened to the great despondency felt by Mark Antony.

The Cherbonnier home, originally named "Haille's Adventure" and "Betty's Delight," is one of the oldest in Baltimore county, but its exact date of construction is not known. Neil Haille, one of the Cherbonnier ancestors, recorded the land in Annapolis in 1738.

Washington and Lafayette reportedly visited the Timonium mansion. Once the house served as a hotel, housing nineteen families. Wings have been added and torn down during the centuries.

AND TODAY—Mrs. Colgate Cherbonnier Pascal is still working with horses and is on the job every day at the Timonium barns.

the house stood at its present site, but Mrs. Ewing says eight of the original rooms still exist.

Mrs. Colgate Cherbonnier Pascal, who was a cousin of the Price sisters. The story went that Colgate made her debut one day and the next ran off with the stable boy.

sister came to Emmeline Price
